REGIONAL LAW ENFORCEMENT ACADEMY HOSTS OPEN HOUSE

San Antonio, February 6, 2008 – On February 21, 2008, AACOG's Regional Law Enforcement Training Academy will be hosting an open house at their training facility, located at 8700 Tesoro Drive, 6th Floor, Classroom 1, San Antonio, Texas. Academy personnel will be conducting tours of the facility beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing every half hour until 1 p.m.

The open house will include an overview of the Regional Academy's operations; a demonstration of the distance learning program between the academy and the Kerr County Sheriff's Department; the integration of SMART Board and other technology; and the integration of reality based training, firearms/defensive tactics training, physical fitness program, and communications skill development. Refreshments will be served. For more information about the open house call (210) 362-5291 or e-mail dhaby@aacog.com.

###

The mission of AACOG's Alamo Area Regional Law Enforcement Academy (AARLEA) is to enhance the quality of life for our community by providing innovative, visionary, timely, and comprehensive law enforcement education and training. In doing so we seek to impact the skills, abilities, and attitudes of current and future law enforcement practitioners and leaders.
