Alamo Aging Awarded Digital TV: Keeping Seniors Connected Campaign Grant

San Antonio, March 3, 2009 – This is a local public service announcement to inform area seniors that the transition from analog to digital broadcasting is currently in progress through June 12, 2009. The Alamo Area Agency on Aging has been awarded a grant called Digital TV: Keeping Seniors Connected Campaign to help seniors determine if they need a DTV converter box, assist in applying for the Converter Box Coupons, assist in securing a converter box, assist with installing converter box and training on how to use it.

“We are pleased to be able to offer this additional service to our local senior citizens,” said Debbie Billa, Alamo Area Agency on Aging Director. Staff from the Alamo Area Agency on Aging will be conducting local information sessions in your area. For more information, or to find out about other sessions, call the Alamo Area Agency on Aging Toll-Free at 1-866-231-4922.
