AACOG's new Spring Lake Cruise to tour communities March 25th

March 17, 2006 – A fine arts foundry, a spectacular, non-public view of the magnificent, newly carved gorge at Canyon Lake, and a community market days are but a few of the delights awaiting participants in AACOG's new Spring Lake Cruise that will debut on Saturday, March 25, 2006.

The Alamo area encompasses an enormous variety of enjoyable touring opportunities. The Alamo Area Council of Car Clubs are eagerly anticipating driving the back roads through the beautiful vistas and getting better acquainted with the friendly communities on AACOG's first Spring Lake Cruise. This new car cruise will include the communities of Boerne, Bergheim, Bulverde, Canyon Lake, Gruene, McQueeney, and Seguin. More than a dozen car clubs will be taking part in this new event.
