

Contact: Henri Eaton
Ombudsman/Elder Rights Specialist
AACOG Alamo Area Agency on Aging
8700 Tesoro Drive, Suite 700
San Antonio, TX 78217
heaton@aacog.com
Phone (210) 362-5261
Fax (210) 225-5937

News Release

Volunteer Recognition Luncheon Honors Bexar and Alamo Area Agencies on Aging Volunteers during the 2008 National Volunteer Week Celebration

San Antonio, April 30, 2008 – Advisory Committees for the Alamo and Bexar Area Agencies on Aging, agency staff, and community supporters will celebrate the contributions of volunteers at a Volunteer Recognition Luncheon on Friday, May 2, 2008.

With immeasurable generosity and selflessness, these volunteers share their time and talent to improve our community and help our community's most vulnerable residents – the elderly and the disabled. National Volunteer Week is the ideal time to honor volunteers who are meeting community needs around the country and calling the public's attention to their tremendous contributions.

- WHO: Wendy Biro-Pollard, CVA
The Long and Short of Nonprofit Management
- WHAT: Luncheon recognizing volunteer benefits counselors, ombudsmen, in-house attorneys, administrative support volunteers in Bexar County and the surrounding counties.
- WHERE: Oak Hills Country Club, 5403 Fredericksburg Road, San Antonio, TX 78229
- WHEN: Friday, May 2, 2008, 11:30 a.m.
- WHY: National Volunteer Week is about thanking our community's most valuable assets – volunteers – and calling the public's attention to all that they do to improve our communities. The Week is sponsored by the Points of Light Foundation & Volunteer Center National Network and was first designated as an annual observance by Executive Order by President Richard Nixon in 1974.

For more information about National Volunteer Week activities visit www.1-800Volunteer.org for more details. To set up interviews with local/national volunteers and/or experts, please contact Henri Eaton or Fred Whiting, Director of Strategic Communications, Points of Light Foundation & Volunteer Center National Network, at (202) 729-8177 or e-mail: FWhiting@PointsofLight.org.

###