- 11.3. All meetings will follow the AACOG CJP Parliamentary Procedure as outlined in Appendix A.
- 11.4. Special meetings of the Committee may be convened at the direction of the Chair, at the time and place so directed.
- 11.5. Over fifty percent of members of the CJAC must be in attendance at the meeting to constitute a quorum.
- 11.6. Each Member or their alternate shall have one vote. A simple majority of those present and voting will be sufficient to decide any question before the Committee.
- 11.7. The use of proxy votes is disallowed in accordance with the AACOG Board of Directors bylaws and will not be accepted.
- 11.8. In the absence of both the Chair and the Vice-Chair, the senior AAOG staff member present may act as Chair Ex-officio for the sole purpose of designating a member as Chair Pro-Tempore, and the member so designated shall have all the powers of the Chair for that particular meeting.
- 11.9. Members who miss three or more regularly scheduled meetings in a twelve month period without a duly recognized alternate in attendance may be considered by the Chair as having been removed and the vacancy filled in the normal manner.
- 11.10. AACOG Staff shall prepare and distribute to all members the agenda for each meeting at least one week prior to the date thereof. Written requests to place items on the agenda should be submitted to the Chair and AACOG Staff at least 10 working days prior to the next scheduled meeting.
- 11.11. The official minutes of CJAC meetings shall be recorded and maintained by the AACOG staff. The approved minutes will be posted on the AACOG website, and distributed to the members of The CJAC no later than two weeks after the meeting.

11.12. CJAC Steering Committee Meetings are created by CJAC during Regular Public Meetings and will follow these guidelines:

11.12.1. All Steering Committees will be facilitated by AACOG staff and do not require elected Officers.

11.12.2. All Steering Committees will fulfill their intended purpose and provide all materials and suggestions to the regular CJAC Meetings for final approval.

12. Regional Strategic Plan

12.1. When reviewing grant applications, CJAC will refer to the Criminal Justice Regional Strategic Plan to:

12.1.1. Prevent duplication of local project services;

12.1.2. Promote inter-governmental and interagency cooperation and coordination;

12.1.3. Support planning comprehensiveness for regional services and resources;

12.1.4. Analyze the regional impact of the proposed project or program; and

12.1.5. Confirm grant projects address one or more regional priorities determined in the Criminal Justice Regional Strategic Plan.

12.2. AACOG Staff will collect qualitative and quantitative data from stakeholders and other community members to report updated Strategic Plan Goals.

12.3. AACOG Staff will additionally include an executive summary for general public audience.

13. Conflict of Interest

13.1. CJAC and AACOG Board of Directors must abstain from any action beyond review and providing expert opinions during the prioritization process if the member or an individual related to the member within the third degree by consanguinity or within the second degree by affinity:

13.1.1. Is employed by the applicant agency² and works for the unit or division that would administer the grant, if awarded;

² For purpose of this section, "agency", when applied to Municipalities or Counties, shall mean any division of said Municipality or County, and "unit or division" shall be a smaller component of that division.

- 13.1.2. Serves on any board that oversees the unit or division that would administer the grant, if awarded;
 - 13.1.3. Owns or controls any interest in a business entity or other non-governmental organization that benefits, directly or indirectly, from activities with the applicant agency;
 - 13.1.4. Receives any funds from the applicant agency as a result of the grant, if awarded; or
 - 13.1.5. Uses or receives a substantial amount of tangible goods, services, or funds from the applicant agency.
- 13.2. CJAC Members with Conflict of Interest will vacate the room, virtual platform, etc. during the conflicted application's scoring, is unable to present their agency's application to CJAC, and may not participate in outside conversations regarding the application with other CJAC members.
- 13.3. AACOG staff may participate in any grant application submitted by the COG, but may not vote, take action, or comment on COG applications.
- 13.4. Any applicants, CJAC Members, COG personnel, or other individual has reason to believe that favoritism or inappropriate actions occurred during CJD application scoring and prioritization, identifying Conflict of Interest, Membership nomination, Membership removal, or any other Membership item, AACOG shall ensure that all concerns are shared with CJD.
- 13.5. AACOG Staff will provide CJAC with a detailed list of CJAC Member Conflict of Interest no later than the regular CJAC Meeting prior to the Scoring Meetings or one month prior to the Scoring Meetings, whichever occurs first.
- 13.5.1. It is the responsibility of CJAC Members to notify AACOG staff concerning any changes with the recorded Conflict of Interest list.

14. CJD Grant Applicant Materials and Requirements

- 14.1. CJD Grant Applicants must follow the CJAC Bylaws and Grant Application Guidelines to receive a favorable review.
- 14.2. CJD Grant Applicants must attend a mandatory Grant Workshop to fulfill regional requirements and receive a favorable review.
- 14.3. CJD Grant Applicants must submit a Grant Summary Form to receive a favorable review.
- 14.4. A grant applicant representative must attend the Scoring and Prioritization Meeting and present the agency's grant project to receive a favorable review.

- 14.5. CJAC and/or AACOG staff reserve the right to request additional information other than what is included in the CJD application, forms or attachments. Failure to comply with this request shall result in the application not being recommended for funding.

15. CJAC Guidelines

- 15.1. CJAC may develop and adopt guidelines for regional grant application requirements, funding recommendations, and score tools.
- 15.2. CJAC will include the following in the Guidelines:
 - 15.2.1. Regional requirements for Favorable Review;
 - 15.2.2. Scoring areas;
 - 15.2.3. Recommended Budget Caps;
 - 15.2.4. Funding Ratios for repeat projects;
 - 15.2.5. Any other topics necessary to conduct a regional review.
- 15.3. The AACOG Board of Directors must approve all adopted policies and procedures prior to implementation.

16. Application Review

- 16.1. CJAC shall participate in the CJD Grant Application Review Process each year to provide regional referrals to the CJD.
- 16.2. CJAC must vote to give an application that will be recommended for funding a "Favorable Review". Alternatively, CJAC must vote to give an application that will not be recommended for funding an "Unfavorable Review".
 - 16.2.1. Grant applicants must meet all requirements set within these bylaws and CJAC Grant Application Guidelines to receive a favorable review.
 - 16.2.2. CJAC may not send forth an application to the AACOG Board of Directors without a recommendation.
 - 16.2.3. CJAC will provide application scores and recommend application budgets to AACOG staff to create the Priority Ranking Sheet.
 - 16.2.4. AACOG Staff will provide the ranks and recommended budgets for each application to CJD.

17. CJAC Scoring Requirements

- 17.1. AACOG Staff will provide CJAC Members with CJAC Scoring Workshops.

17.1.1. In order to score, CJAC Members must attend a CJAC Scoring Workshop on their first term and every two years thereafter.

17.2. AACOG Staff will provide a Score Tool to CJAC Members that follows CJD requirements and is approved by the CJAC. CJAC Members must use the provided Score Tool to submit application scores.

18. Tabulation and Ranking

18.1. AACOG staff will tabulate the scores rendered by the CJAC and report the priority ranking for the grant applications based on their total score average. AACOG staff will dismiss the highest and lowest scores submitted by CJAC members when formulating the average score.

18.2. AACOG staff shall provide written notification of scores and rankings to all scored grant applicants within 14 days of approval by the AACOG Board of Directors.

18.2.1. No grant applicant will receive verbal, written, or any other type of communication of Board of Directors' approved scores, ranking, or recommended funding prior to the release of the approved Priority Ranking Sheet.

19. Tied Applications

19.1.1. In the event of two or more grant applications receiving the same scores, the identified grant applications must go through a tie breaker process approved by AACOG. AACOG staff will remove the lowest given score from each tied grant application. Staff will then recalculate and compare the new average scores. This process will continue until the identified grant applications no longer have tied scores.

19.1.2. CJAC will be notified of any updated grant application scores prior to the ranking and prioritization meeting.

20. Funding Recommendations

20.1. CJAC may recommend funds that are equal or less than the funds requested on an application, including exempt programs, for any other reason that it deems necessary and appropriate.

20.2. CJAC may determine which applications to recommend for funding and which applications should not be recommended for funding.

20.3. Funding recommendations on grant applications are based upon:

20.3.1. Any state strategies identified by The Office of The Governor – Criminal Justice Division;

20.3.2. Availability of regional funds for each funding stream;

20.3.3. Criminal justice priorities identified in the most recently completed strategic plan;

20.3.4. The eligibility, reasonableness, and cost effectiveness of the proposed project; and

20.3.5. Current AACOG policies and bylaws.

20.4. The decision to not recommend an application for funding will be reported to CJD.

21. Appeal Process

21.1. CJD Grant Applicants may appeal an Unfavorable Review made by the CJAC.

21.1.1. To appeal an Unfavorable Review, grant applicants must contact AACOG staff of their appeal within five working days of the Unfavorable Review by CJAC.

21.2. AACOG staff will provide written notification of the date and time of the next AACOG Board meeting to the agency who wishes to appeal the decision of CJAC.

21.3. AACOG staff must notify the AACOG Board of any appeals.

21.4. CJD Grant Applicants may not appeal the final scores approved by the AACOG Board of Directors. The decision of the AACOG Board of Directors is final.

21.5. Consistent with the amendments made to the Texas Administrative Code, effective June 21, 2009, there is no appeal process for grant applicants for decisions made by the CJAC and the AACOG Board of Directors and provided to the Executive Director of the CJD. The funding decisions of the Executive Director of the Governor's Office, Criminal Justice Department are final and are not subject to appeal. (TAC Section 3.9)

22. Alternative CJAC Meeting Process

22.1. In case of local, state, and/or federal emergencies and/or disasters, the COG will conduct an OOG approved alternative meeting process. This process will be used for all CJAC Meetings which includes but is not limited to:

22.1.1. Regular CJAC Meetings;

22.1.2. Scoring and Prioritization CJAC Meetings; and

22.1.3. CJAC Steering Committee Meetings.

- 22.2. AACOG Staff will provide CJAC Members with all necessary meeting materials prior to the virtual meeting.
- 22.3. The Chair will conduct all duties as appropriate, unless otherwise stated. In the case that the Chair experiences technical difficulties during a virtual meeting, the Vice-Chair will take over as Chair.
- 22.4. Quorum must be established to conduct all CJAC meetings, regardless of the hosted platform. Quorum will be established during Roll Call with CJAC Members being able to identify attendance through:
 - 22.4.1. Verbal confirmation;
 - 22.4.2. Chat confirmation; and/or
 - 22.4.3. Webcam confirmation.
 - 22.4.4. CJAC Members who do not use the above methods to confirm their attendance will be not able to make Quorum, regardless of a Member's name appearing in a virtual participation list.

23. Amendments to the Bylaws

- 23.1. AACOG Staff will review and edit the CJAC Bylaws every July as necessary.
- 23.2. CJAC will review and submit the CJAC Bylaws for approval every September as necessary.
- 23.3. CJAC may amend the CJAC Bylaws by a majority vote.
- 23.4. Any proposed amendment must be submitted to CJAC membership at least ten days prior to the meeting at which they may be acted on.
- 23.5. An amendment to any one section of the said Bylaws does not necessarily invalidate the remainder.
- 23.6. The AACOG Board of Directors must approve the CJAC Bylaws and any revisions to the Bylaws.
